

Walking trails in the town and surrounding area

Vardafjellet from the town centre

BROWN TRAIL ⚪ 5 KM ROUNDTRIP ⏰ 1,15 HOURS

- 12. Haraldsgata
- 3. Karmsund Folk Museum
- 18. Haugesund Stadium
- 21. Vardafjellet mountain – panoramic views across Haugesund
- 16. The town hall and town hall square
- 17. Marilyn Monroe statue

Djupadalen from town centre

YELLOW TRAIL ⚪ 9 KM ROUNDTRIP ⏰ 2 HOURS

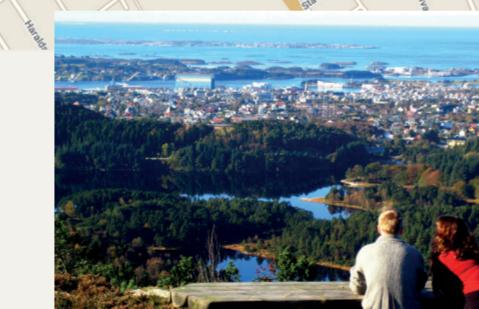

- 12. Haraldsgata
- 6. Vår Frelsers Kirke (Our Saviour's Church)
- 18. Haugesund Stadium
- 19. Djupadalen valley
- 23. Lothe Park
- 7. City Park
- 8. Haugesund Art Gallery
- 9. Skåre church
- 24. Walking trail

Coastal path from town centre

BLUE TRAIL ⚪ 7,5 KM ⏰ 1,5 HOURS

- 12. Haraldsgata
- 3. Karmsund Folk Museum
- 6. Vår Frelsers Kirke (Our Saviour's Church)
- 7. City Park
- 8. Haugesund Art Gallery
- 9. Skåre church
- 24. Walking trail
- 25+28. If you want to do a longer walk, walk on to Kvalen Lighthouse and The Rising Tide horse sculptures.
- 26. Haraldshaugen
- 27. Kroshaugen
- 10. Havnaberg and the statue of Harald Fairhair
- 12. Haraldsgata
- 14. The Fishermen statue
- 15. Indre kai quay

Steinsfjellet from town centre

GREEN TRAIL ⚪ 12,8 KM ⏰ 3 HOURS

- 12. Haraldsgata
- 18. Haugesund Stadium
- 19. Djupadalen valley
- 20. Steinsfjellet mountain

From Djupadalen, you cross into the Byheiene network of trails, and there is a waymarked path up to the top of Steinsfjellet. The walk is in varied terrain, and sturdy footwear is recommended. It's not far from Steinsfjellet viewpoint to Kringsjå, a cabin with a nice outdoor area where you can take a break and enjoy your packed lunch.

Eivindsvatnet

RED TRAIL ⚪ 9 KM ROUNDTRIP ⏰ 2 HOURS

- Eivindsvatnet lake is at the end of Djupadalen valley. Walking around the lake is a nice option, and there is a lean-to shelter where you can take a break. The route marked on the map is Lionsløypen – follow the signs. If you want to do a longer walk, you can walk up to Orkjå and then walk back the same way or do a round trip via Friulfshuset. Djupadalen valley is the starting point for walks up to Steinsfjellet and the other Byheiene hills. You can also go for a swim in Eivindsvatnet lake.

Kvalarunden from town centre

PURPLE TRAIL ⚪ 9,5 KM ROUNDTRIP ⏰ 2,5 HOURS

- 12. Haraldsgata
- 14. The Fishermen statue
- 7. City Park
- 10. Havnaberg and the statue of Harald Fairhair
- 9. Skåre church
- 26. Haraldshaugen
- 27. Kroshaugen

Follow the Kvalarunden waymarked trail.

Haraldsvang from town centre

ORANGE TRAIL ⚪ 5,6 KM ⏰ 1,15 HOURS

- 12. Haraldsgata
- 14. The Fishermen statue
- 7. City Park
- 23. Lothe Park
- 22. Haraldsvang with a playground, swimming opportunities and a diving platform.

Follow the same route back.